Alex's journey: The story of a child with a brain tumor

https://libraries.phsa.ca/permalink/catalog103049

Audience: Patient or Public
Agency: BC Children's and Women's
Location: Family Support & Resource Centre
Call Number: JUNIOR FM 380 SPR 1994

"Basic information about brain tumors is conveyed through the fictional story of one boy's experiences.

American Brain Tumor Association

https://libraries.phsa.ca/permalink/catalog104204

http://www.abta.org/

American Brain Tumor Association. Des Plaines, IL: American Brain Tumor Association (Online)

Audience: Patient or Public
Agency: BC Children's and Women's

Source for information about brain tumours, treatment options, clinical trials and living with a brain tumour.

Brain tumors--Leaving the garden of Eden: A survival guide to diagnosis, learning the basics, getting organized, and finding your medical team

https://libraries.phsa.ca/permalink/catalog108692

Zeltzer, Paul M. Encino, CA: Shilysca Press, c2004. (Book) — 1 copy, 0 available

Audience: Patient or Public
Agency: BC Children's and Women's
Location: Family Support & Resource Centre
Call Number: FM 380 ZEL 2004

A guide book that translates the challenge of having a primary or metastatic brain tumour into practical, decision-making for the best treatment. It provides the context for book or web resources and explains how to access the best in medical care and increase your odds of being a successful
A friend in Hope: A story about Hope’s journey with a brain tumour

https://libraries.phsa.ca/permalink/catalog108823

Zammit, Marisa, Dornbusch, Erica (ill.). London, ON: Brain Tumour Foundation of Canada, 2005. (Book) — 1 copy, 1 available

Audience: Patient or Public
Agency: BC Children’s and Women’s
Location: Family Support & Resource Centre
Call Number: JUNIOR FM 380 ZAM 2005

This illustrated book was created to provide support and information to young children who have been affected by a brain tumour diagnosis, either personally or through someone close to them, as well as to create public awareness about brain tumours. Through imagination and hope, this story about

Me, myself and my brain stem tumour: Memoirs of a pediatric brain cancer survivor

https://libraries.phsa.ca/permalink/catalog113844

Audience: Patient or Public
Agency: BC Children’s and Women’s
Location: Family Support & Resource Centre
Call Number: FE 370 AZI 2015

Bayan Azizi was just an average nine-year-old boy playing street hockey with friends and teasing his younger brother and sister when the unthinkable happened. A series of symptoms - a droopy eyelid, a slight speech impediment, some motor difficulties - took him to Children’s Hospital in Vancouver, …

La mia amica speranza: Speranza e il suo tumore cerebrale (Italian)

https://libraries.phsa.ca/permalink/catalog111048

Audience: Patient or Public
Agency: BC Children’s and Women’s
Location: Family Support & Resource Centre
Call Number: JUNIOR FM 385 2008

This illustrated book was created to provide support and information to young children who have been affected by a brain tumour diagnosis, either personally or through someone close to them, as well as to create public awareness about brain tumours. Through imagination and hope, this story about
Mon amie Claire: L'histoire de Claire et de sa tumeur cerebrale

This illustrated book was created to provide support and information to young children who have been affected by a brain tumour diagnosis, either personally or through someone close to them, as well as to create public awareness about brain tumours. Through imagination and hope, this story about

Pediatric brain tumour handbook

This resource aims to provide comprehensive and easy-to-read information about the disease, including brain tumour types, treatment options, and what to expect after a diagnosis. The information also addresses some of the questions and concerns you may have about your child being diagnosed with a

Samantha's unicorn

Based on a dream that the author's daughter had after she was diagnosed with a brain stem brain tumour, the book is intended as a resource for parents with a dying child.